ABOUT THE PLAY: With a rich four-hundred and twenty year production history that spans the globe, A Midsummer Night's Dream tops the list of Shakespeare's iconic plays. This eclectic masterpiece weaves together plot devices of Roman comedy, characters of Greek myth, and the remarkable theatricality of the early modern English stage. When young lovers set out to escape the strictures of Athenian law, they enter into an invisible fairy kingdom, where magic, mischief, and mix-ups ensue.

In the world of dreams, time and space bend and blur in interesting ways. Dreams can be places of passion, transformation, and supernatural feats. For the Palm Beach Shakespeare Festival's thirty-first Shakespeare by the Sea, we are delighted to present the multifarious elements of A Midsummer Night's Dream through the lens of a kaleidoscopic dreamscape. On a sultry midsummer night, we invite you to sit back, relax, and "dream away the time" with us. Enjoy the show!

Trent Stephens, Director
